FISCAL IMPACT STATEMENT

LS 6459 NOTE PREPARED: Dec 7, 2007

BILL NUMBER: SB 130 BILL AMENDED:

SUBJECT: Conversion by Failure to Return Rented Property.

FIRST AUTHOR: Sen. Arnold BILL STATUS: As Introduced

FIRST SPONSOR:

FUNDS AFFECTED: X GENERAL IMPACT: State & Local

 $\overline{\underline{X}}$ DEDICATED FEDERAL

Summary of Legislation: The bill makes it a Class D felony if a person knowingly or intentionally fails to return a leased motor vehicle or item of personal property after delivery or attempted delivery of a notice by certified mail.

It permits a court to enter a judgment of conviction for a Class A misdemeanor if the motor vehicle or item of personal property is returned or recovered within 90 days.

Effective Date: July 1, 2008.

Explanation of State Expenditures: There are no data available to indicate how many offenders will be convicted of rental conversion, a Class D felony for failing to return a motor vehicle or property with a value of more than $5,000 within the specified time. The offense could be reduced to a Class A misdemeanor if the property is returned within 90 days.

A Class D felony is punishable by a prison term ranging from six months to three years or reduction to Class A misdemeanor, depending upon mitigating and aggravating circumstances. The average expenditure to house an adult offender was $19,185 in FY 2007. (This does not include the cost of new construction.) If offenders can be housed in existing facilities with no additional staff, the marginal cost for medical care, food, and clothing is approximately $1,825 annually, or $5 daily, per prisoner. The estimated average cost of housing a juvenile in a state juvenile facility was $63,138. The average length of stay in Department of Correction (DOC) facilities for all Class D felony offenders is approximately ten months.

SB 130+

Explanation of State Revenues: If additional court cases occur and fines are collected, revenue to both the Common School Fund and the state General Fund would increase. The maximum fine for a Class D felony is $10,000, and the maximum fine for a Class A misdemeanor is $5,000. Criminal fines are deposited in the Common School Fund.

If the case is filed in a circuit, superior, or county court, 70% of the $120 criminal costs fee that is assessed and collected when a guilty verdict is entered would be deposited in the state General Fund. If the case is filed in a city or town court, 55% of the fee would be deposited in the state General Fund. In addition, some or all of the document storage fee ($2), automated record keeping fee ($7), judicial salaries fee ($17), public defense administration fee ($3), court administration fee ($3), judicial insurance adjustment fee ($1), and the DNA sample processing fee ($1) are deposited into the state General Fund.

Explanation of Local Expenditures: A Class A misdemeanor is punishable by up to one year in jail and felony offenders may be detained in county jails prior to their court hearing. The average daily cost to incarcerate a prisoner in a county jail is approximately $44.

Explanation of Local Revenues: If additional court actions occur and a guilty verdict is entered, local governments would receive revenue from the following sources: The county general fund would receive 27% of the $120 court fee that is assessed in a court of record. Cities and towns maintaining a law enforcement agency that prosecutes at least 50% of its ordinance violations in a court of record may receive 3% of court fees. If the case is filed in a city or town court, 20% of the court fee would be deposited in the county general fund and 25% would be deposited in the city or town general fund. In addition, several additional fees may be collected at the discretion of the judge and depending upon the particular type of criminal case.

State Agencies Affected: Department of Correction.

Local Agencies Affected: Trial courts, local law enforcement agencies.
